The World's Best Stadium

For their Silver Anniversary Year—their 25th season in the National Football League, the Redskins have moved into a new home.

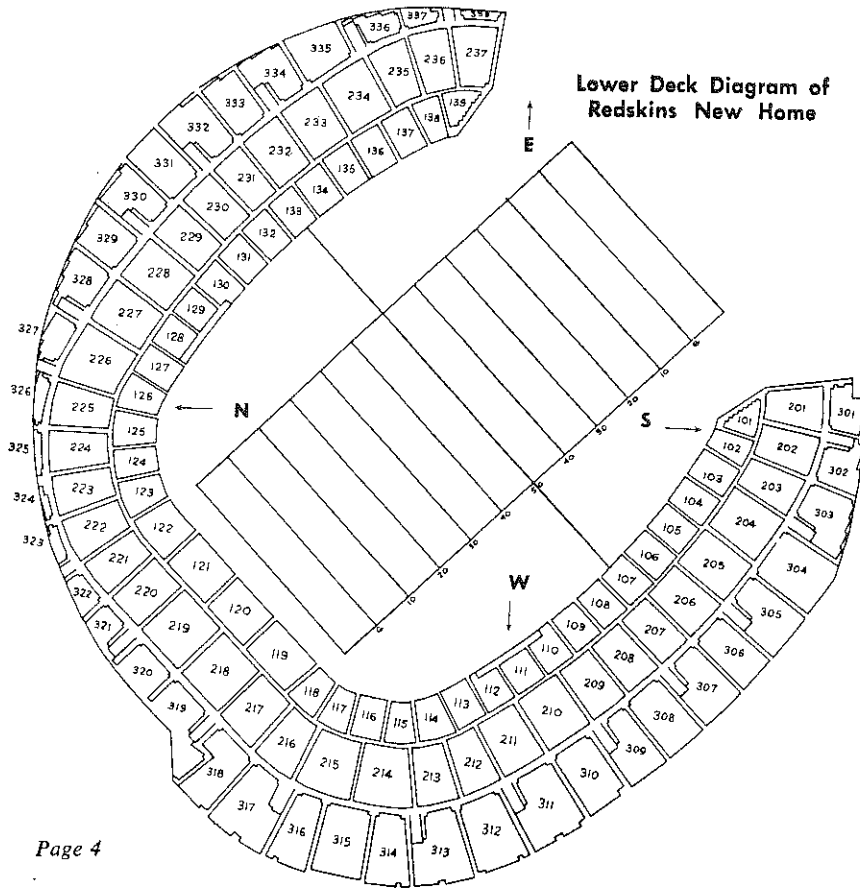

It is America's newest stadium—and the world's best!

This great new 50,000-seat D. C. Stadium has been built for comfort and convenience:

- There are no pillars or posts to obstruct anyone's vision—even though this stadium is double-decked and roofed!
- There are no bleacher, backless seats—every seat in the stadium is a comfortable chair with restful back and arm rests.
- The individual chairs average 21 comfortably curved inches in the seating part—about 3 inches wider than normal seats.
- There are more seats under cover than in any other athletic field—about 70 per cent of the 50,000.
- There are more seats along the sidelines than in any other stadium: more than 30,000!
- There are 26 spacious concessions stands and 45 rest rooms—the most such facilities any stadium can boast.
- There are 9,000 surfaced parking spaces which will be increased to 12,500. Buses (300) and cabs (300) are being taken care of separately.
- There is a giant electric scoreboard (240 feet wide, 40 feet high) which flashes messages to the crowd.

Seating diagrams can be found on the following pages.

GREAT DAYS...to remember

The Start July 9, 1932	George P. Marshall heads syndicate (Vincent Bendix, Jay O'Brien, M. Dorland Doyle) that buys National Football League franchise for Boston, Massachusetts. They contract to play in Braves Field, home of National Baseball League team — and are called the Braves.
The Name July 8, 1933	The Boston gridders move to Fenway Park, home of American League Red Sox, and their name becomes The Redskins.
The Franchise Feb. 13, 1937	National Football League approves transfer of Boston Redskins franchise to Washington, D. C.
The First Game Sept. 16, 1937	Jesse Jones throws out the first ball and Riley Smith plays with it all night.
The Band Aug. 9, 1938	The famed Redskins Band founded. First of its kind . . . and still the best. See page 13.
The Song Aug. 17, 1938	"Hail to the Redskins!", our cherished rally song, rings out across the land for the first time — over a coast-to-coast network. First also of its kind . . . and still the best, too. Words by Corinne Griffith, music by Barnee Breeskin, published by Leo Feist.

"Hail to the Redskins"

Ballad for Battle: Oldest and best pro football victory march.

HAIL TO THE REDSKINS, Hail Vic-to-ry,

Read em, weep 'em,
Touch-down we want heap more.
Fight on. Fight on till you have won.

The Million Dollar Games

Games featuring the Redskins have netted more than $2,000,000 for charities from coast to coast. Such games, sponsored by newspaper publishers and various civic organizations, have been played in about 30 cities.

A series sponsored by the Variety Clubs of Baltimore and Washington not only introduced pro football to Baltimore but netted $125,000 for boys' club activities in the two cities.

During World War II, two Redskins games netted about $125,000 for service relief funds.

In Winston-Salem, N. C., the Piedmont Bowl series raised about $100,000.

In Norfolk, Va., a new series (Colts vs Redskins Aug. 26) sponsored by The Kiwanis Club is on its way to become one of the most successful in the nation.

But, by far, the most successful has been the annual Redskins-Rams game for The Los Angeles Times Charities, Inc., in mammoth Memorial Coliseum in Los Angeles. This series (16th game this year) has netted after all taxes and expenses almost $1,300,000. It has built three boys clubs!

Newest addition to the Good Samaritan Schedule is the Redskins-Packers game in Columbus, Ga., on this Sept. 9. The area boys' clubs will benefit.

Perhaps the biggest of them all could be the series starting next year—The Shrine Bowl in the great new D. C. Stadium in Washington, D. C. Almas Temple of the Shrine (Jack Blank, Illustrious Potentate) and the Redskins have signed a five-year contract for an annual pre-season game for local charities to start in August, 1962. Featured in this series will be two of the Redskins' greatest rivals — the Colts (1962, 1964, 1966) and the Bears (1963, 1965).

The American Oil Company Air Teams

The record-breaking run of the air waves rolls on. For the 19th consecutive year, The American Oil Co., maker of AMOCO Super-Premium Gasoline, is bringing Redskins games into your home over vast television and radio networks.

Such continuity of performance is unmatched in air annals.

The American mike teams this year:

TELEVISION: Jim Gibbons, the play-by-play; Eddie Gallaher, the sidelights.

RADIO (AM-FM): Bill McColgan, play-by-play; assisted by a well-known sidelights announcer.

Jim Gibbons has been a part of this record-smashing show for 18 of its 19 years. This is his eighth season as play-by-play announcer. Eddie Gallaher has been teamed with Gibbons since 1955.

On radio, Bill McColgan is starting his first year with the Redskins. McColgan, succeeding Dan Daniels (who transferred to baseball), is a former broadcaster for the Cleveland Browns.

Redskins only 1960 victory—and they have to come from behind. LeBaron, in strange invader role, directs new Dallas team 75 yds to 7-3 lead on 2nd play of 2nd quarter (TD toss to Clarke, 32 yds). Skins rage right back behind Guglielmi and romp to victory.

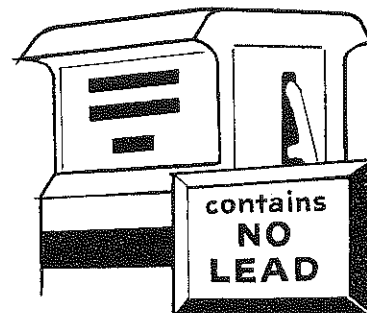

LeBaron sets all-time NFL oddity record with shortest TD pass: 2 inches to Bielski! Khayat kicks 4 FGs (15, 29, 10, 38,) to tie Redskins record (Sam Baker vs Eagles Nov. 24, 1957). "Virginia Day" is observed in the popular "Days for Dixie." Famed 150-piece Regimental Cadet Band of Virginia Polytechnic Institute thrills at half-time.
